Fun-Time Party December 22

All children from the ages of two to 12 are invited to attend a party on December 22, at 1 p.m., at the Pasadena Temple Center, 1434 N. Altadena Dr., Pasadena.

Each year, women of the San Gabriel Valley Hadassah hold a "fun time party" during the mid-term holidays, a time devoted exclusively to children. Adult attendance is limited to loving mothers and fathers, doting grandmothers and grandfathers, proud aunts, uncles, nephews, nieces, and tolerant neighbors and friends.

Mr. Hank Higgins, of the Hollywood Marionette Theatre, will present his show "Zippety Zoo" for the guests, and his "Puffets" give a never-to-be-forgotten 45 minute performance for youngsters of all ages who attend.

Of course, like all good parties, this one will supply the "kids" with punch, cookies, balloons, favors and prizes. No reservations are necessary; the cost is quite nominal.

San Gabriel Valley Women of Hadassah are devoted to their philanthropic goal of help to the sick and needy, and concentrate their efforts particularly in bringing help to children.

So, round up all the youngsters you can find, and bring them out for a fun time, December 22.

Open House For Mr. & Mrs. Roach 50th Anniversary

A three tier wedding cake, topped with a pair of love birds, and a gold 50, surrounded by gold tulle, and champagne punch highlighted the beautiful table that served the 75 guests attending the 50th wedding anniversary open house of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ray Roach recently.

Another interesting decoration was the money tree used as a center piece of the huge round coffee table. Money was folded in fan shapes, on a background of gold foil, this gold theme was carried throughout the home of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Hess of 3700 Newhaven, Pasadena, daughter and son-in-law of the honored couple, where the open house was held to commemorate this wonderful occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Roach were married in Lyndon, Kansas on November 14, 1924. Mrs. Roach is the former Inez Duckworth of San Bernardino. Mr. Roach is originally from Burlingame, Kansas and he has been in the wholesale grocery business until his retirement three years ago. The couple have two sons, Clayton L. Roach of Glendora and Robert J. Roach of Arcadia, and a daughter Virginia R. Hess of Pasadena, three grandsons, James L. Robert L., and Jon L. Roach.

Mr. and Mrs. Roach came to California in September, 1922 and they presently reside in Pico Rivera.

The October meeting was a Halloween party at the Young Women's Foothill Center, the November meeting the teens will decorate the new Foothill Center for the Christmas season and the December meeting will be a Christmas party on December 10.

Any girls interested in attending these activities are asked to call the Foothill Center any day from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at 287-3663 or Miss Ridgeway at SY 3-5171.

As the past presidents arrived, each was presented with a red star burst corsage. Past presidents who attended were Mrs. Ted Segers, Mrs. Rodger W. Maxson, Mrs. Robert G. Cushman, Mrs. George E. Berger, Mrs. Franklin A. Williams, and Mrs. Langdon H. Tannehill.

Chairman of the luncheon is Mrs. Delford McGee, who is being assisted by Mrs. Theodore A. Fielding, Mrs. Alfred S. Wach, and Mrs. Robert E. Simon.

Evergreen Legend
Long before the Christian era, Egyptians celebrated the winter solstice (shortest day of the year) by bringing green date palms into their homes as a symbol of the triumph of life over death. Raising of an evergreen bough was a traditional part of the Roman observance of the Feast of Saturn.

The well-groomed woman should treat colors with a wary eye, favoring those kind to her hair and complexion and avoiding those which are uncomplimentary. Orange is the warmest color, but not a flattering one in general. Blue is kind to blonde and brunette alike, yellow favors the brunettes, but only blondes can wear the warmer shades of brown which tend to give darker-skinned persons a washed-out appearance.

Enjoy Christmas At Ice House

Ho, Ho, Ho, Santa, what's new besides that jolly green suit?

The jolly old traditional Christmas concerts at the Ice House, that's what. Not really so new but oh, so jolly, with folk songs and laughter and egg nog with holly.

Patti Ingalls, billed as a soprano organizer, heads this year's show as she has for the past two years — splendidly. Also, for the third consecutive Christmas, Paul Sykes will bestow his goodies of song and satire among the revelers (pretty soon he's going to get too old to go sliding all over those chimneys like Mary Poppins).

Mason Williams, now on the regular bill at the Ice House, has agreed to lend his charm and talent to these joyous jamborees of jollity, and, to ensure the life of the party, David Troy will be on hand to take back the toys from anyone who isn't having a good time.

Time? Early — 4 p.m. on Sunday and 9 p.m. on Monday — yes, we said Monday (December 21). Wear your Humbug Button, your jingle bells, and your happiest smile to the Ice House, where the Ghost of Christmas Merry has a haunting license good from now through the Yule Near.

SM Community Hosp. News

The many friends of Mrs. Ernest Richter will be happy to join with her in the joyous occasion of her return to her home at 600 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., Sierra Madre after an eight weeks stay in Sierra Madre Community Hospital. During this time there were many anxious days for her loved ones while she remained on the critical list. But with her determination and the constant vigilance of her husband she is now going to be

"home for Christmas" with recovery to good health assured.

Mrs. Dorothea Williams, 72 N. Auburn St., Sierra Madre was a medical patient at Sierra Madre Community Hospital from Tuesday until Thursday during the past week.

Her birth date was recorded as Thursday, December 10 with a birth weight of 6 pounds 2 1/2 ounces. Her brother Theron Zane has agreed to share his parents' affections

Members of the Sierra Madre Kiwanis Club have presented the Sierra Madre Community Hospital with a new croup tent to be used in our pediatric department. 101 Percent Of Quota Reported In Every holiday season many people re-discover an age-old truth. And when they do, they say, "Wouldn't it be wonderful if everyone were so concerned for others' happiness all year 'round?" But concern for others is not confined to one season. We refer particularly to the thousands of United Crusade volunteers who recently gave many hours and evenings to their assignments. They were working on behalf of people who in the next year will need the help of United Way and Red Cross services. These are people whose names they will never know. And we're mindful of the legion who responded generously to the appeal. These givers asked only that their money be spent carefully and wisely for people whose need is greater than their own.

Working together volunteers and subscribers gave in full measure. Crusade accounting units of the campaign achieved an average of 101 per cent of their quotas. Naturally, some team members scored a bit more; some a bit less.

Robert H. Garretson, chairman for Foothill Area, reports $1,180,255 for 101 per cent of the quota. And some late gifts are still to come.

This is money given to keep open the doors of our health, welfare and disaster agencies for another full year. It is continual proof that concern for our fellow man is far from seasonal.

We salute our fellow citizens for a job well done.

Children should be seen and not hurt.

"A HATFUL OF NEWS" IS 1965 ROSE PARADE ENTRY OF CALIFORNIA STATE EXCHANGE CLUBS

The 150 Exchange Clubs of California have banded together to field a clever entry in the 76th annual Tournament of Roses titled "A Hatful of News," thus adhering to the over-all motif of the famous procession, "Headlines in Flowers." The entry features three newly arrived kittens using a lady's bonnet for their new home. A Dec. 30 luncheon honors Mr. J. H. Grimsey, National President.

Exchange Club Has Entry For Tournament of Roses

"A Hatful of News," is the theme of the entry of the 150 Exchange Clubs in the 76th annual Tournament of Roses in Pasadena on January 1, Glen Piland, Bakersfield, president of the California State Exchange Clubs has just announced.

The clever float features three newly born kittens using the holiday bonnet of the lady of the household as a home. The title of the entry adheres to the over-all parade theme, "Headlines in Flowers," even though the nature of the item may change from the birth column to reporting of a more sensational nature when milady finds how her new hat is being used.

This is the 16th consecutive year the California State Exchange Club has fielded a float in the New Year's Day floral procession. The chairman of the Exchange float committee is Cecil H. Shirar, Corona Del Mar. The builder is Gene Taylor of Eagle Rock. Construction on the entry is in progress at the Tournament's new float decorating building at 835 South Raymond, Pasadena, the Rose Palace.

J. Herbert Grimsey, National Exchange President, White Plains, New York, will be one of the distinguished guests of the Tournament of Roses during the week of activities prior to January 1. He will visit the

Ring the Bells

In Switzerland, bell ringing is a Christmas tradition and each community prides itself on the harmony of its bells. The church bells of Zurich have rung in harmony for hundreds of years, each Christmas calling the faithful to church services.

Christkind

Dear to the heart of Swiss children is Christkind, personified by a girl in white, her face veiled and her head crowned in gold. Accompanied by other children dressed in white, Christkind carries her basket of gifts from house to house, her coming announced by a silver bell. When she enters a house, the Christmas tree is lit and delighted children receive their presents.

'The Cricket'

Charles Dickens is best remembered for "The Christmas Carol" — but this was not the most popular of his Christmas stories during his lifetime. An instant hit with the public was "The Cricket
on the Hearth," a touching story of a father's attempts to shield his blind daughter from the realities of life.
Shortly after it appeared in 1945, some 12 different theatres in London were presenting dramatic versions of
"The Cricket."

Tree Idea

An idea that appears to be gaining in popularity is that of decorating a live tree with its roots wrapped in burlap. The tree can be kept fresh throughout the holidays, then planted outdoors.

Coast Training Representative at 450 Golden Gate Avenue, Box 36073, San Francisco, California 94102.

Big Trees

Annually, the most famous and most photographed
Christmas trees in the United States are those erected on the White House lawn and at Rockefeller Center in New York. The 1958 White House tree, an Engelmann spruce selected from the Kootenai National Forest in Montana, was so large it had to be loaded on two flat cars for the trip to Washington. It was trimmed to 78
feet before being raised and decorated, yet was still the tallest ever used on the White House lawn. The Rockefeller Center tree that same year was 65 feet high and 35 feet in diameter at the base. It came from Maine and was selected only after an intensive nine-month search to find the most perfectly shaped tree possible.

Tree A' Plenty
The popularity of the family Christmas tree is found in the fact that approximately 45 million com-mercially-grown trees were sold in the United States last holiday season. This number does not include the small operator who cuts and sells trees locally, nor the hardy individuals who venture forth to chop down their own.

Kiwanians Hear Guest Speaker On Family Service

Mr. Pat Riley, executive director of Family Service was introduced by Rev.
George Lindsay as the guest speaker at Tuesday, December 15 meeting of the Sierra Madre Kiwanis Club.

Mr. Riley talked to the Kiwanians about the observations and trends of marriage by his counseling. The service has seven professional staff members and counsels approximately 1,000 people per year.

Money, alcohol, sex, and in-laws are some of the most predominant symptoms that individuals are unable to meet with proper emotional control.

Mr. Riley reports that the Family Service stresses, changing the symptoms
does not change the underlying cause. He revealed that all the people seeking counseling come voluntarily, and some are referred by friends, minister, doctor or employer, and he finds that people that recognize that they have a problem and seek counseling and attend
Family Service are much happier and live fuller lives.

Chavez Ravine Construction To Total $55,000

Final plans and specifications for development of Chavez Ravine Recreation Center were approved recently by the Los Angeles
City Recreation and Park
Commission and submitted to the Board of Public Works, which will supervise
the construction of the $55-000 project.

According to the plans
prepared by the Department's Planning Division,
approximately eight acres
will be developed at the corner of Academy Road and Stadium Way. Minor grading of existing level terrain
will create a large recreation area accessible from Academy Road.

Two regulation baseball diamonds, so arranged that activities may be held at both areas simultaneously;
parking for 80 cars; drinking fountains, sanitary facilities, and chainlink fence behind the diamonds are incorporated in the plans.
Lawns and a sprinkler system will also be installed.

Chavez Ravine is presently under the jurisdiction of the Board of Public Works and will be transferred by the City Council to the Recreation and Parks Department when the project has been completed. It is in the 13th District, represented by Councilman James Harvey
Brown.

Holiday Celebrations At 95 Recreation Centers

Holiday fun is in full swing this week at 95 recreation centers operated by the Los Angeles City Recreation and Parks Department.

Featured events are Christmas season plays enacted by children; club and community dances; and yule programs for the entire family, according to Ross A. Cunningham, superintendent of recreation for the Department.

Also included in the list of 254 Christmas events are children's parties, caroling, club activities and Christmas tree decorating.

Community night programs for the entire family feature caroling, entertainment and refreshments in addition to the plays. Among the dramatic presentations being offered this week are "The Town That Couldn't Have Christmas,"

"The Toy Maker's Doll," "Al-ways a Santa Claus" and "The Greatest Gift."

In addition to pre-Christmas events, special holiday programs are being staged by Griffith Park Observatory's planetarium theater, which is presenting "The Christmas Star," and Hollywood Girls Camp, which will conduct five-day holiday outings beginning Saturday, December 19.

Cunningham said that most municipal facilities will be closed December 25, and the Observatory will be closed both December 24 and Christmas Day. Angelos seeking ideas for a Yule outing were reminded that Cabrillo Beach Marine Museum, 3720 Stephen White Drive, San Pedro, will be open to the public as usual from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Christmas Day.

Bible Readings For Sunday Told

Jesus' life as a manifestation of divine power will be studied at Christian Science services this Sunday. Subject: "Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?" Bible readings will include accounts of the virgin birth, calming the storm, the raising of Lazarus, and Jesus' words: "I am the light of the world; he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life" (John 8:12).

Selections from the Christian Science textbook about the birth of Jesus will include these lines: "The incarnation of Truth, that amplification of wonder and glory which angels could only whisper and which God illustrated by light and harmony, in consonant with ever-present Love" (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy, p. 501).

Santa Anita Church To Have Group From Europe Appearing December 18

Bob Mitchell's Singing Boys will appear at the Santa Anita Church, 226 W. Colorado Boulevard, Arcadia, Friday, December 18 at 8 p.m. This celebrated group tour Europe every year. They have sung in Rome for His Holiness, Pope Paul VI, over Italian, French, German, and British TV and the Vatican Radio, entertained servicemen and European audiences, and have appeared before royalty in many countries.

The eight boys range in age from 9 to 14. In addition to a very special Christmas program they will sing some of the best known and best loved songs of all types. Their choir will soon celebrate its 31st anniversary. It has appeared in over 150 motion pictures and in more than 1,000 radio and TV shows. A few of the movies they have worked in

are: "The Babe Ruth Story," "The Bishop's Wife," "Peter Pan," "On Moonlight Bay," "Robin and the Seven Hoods," and, perhaps their best remembered performance with Bing Crosby in "Going My Way." Red Skelton, Frank Sinatra, Eddie Cantor, Dinah Shore, Bob Hope, Bing Crosby, Eddie Fisher, Liberace, George Gobel and Art Linkletter are but a few of the stars with whom they have appeared on radio and TV. They won the Academy Award for one of their recordings, "High Hopes" with Frank Sinatra. They have been acclaimed by Bing Crosby "The best choir in the world," and Carrie Jacobs said, "I think I shall never hear sweeter music." The great Dimitri

Tiomkin, Academy Award winning composer stated, "Bob Mitchell's Singing Boys represent the unusual combination of musicianship, artistry and versatility. Bob Mitchell's genius is ever present. It was a great pleasure to have them sing and appear in 'The Great Waltz.'"

To hear a concert by this unique group is to be inspired as well as entertained, and to wonder of their accomplishments. The boys must master many styles of music, everything from classical to rock-and-roll, and their repertoire includes songs in 16 languages.

Bob Mitchell has earned fame both as a director of his Singing Boys and as a remarkably versatile musician in his own right. Born in Los Angeles, he was soon recognized as a true prodigy, giving his first piano recital at the age of six. He studied organ and liturgical music, and at 18 was the youngest to win the degree of Fellow of the American Guild of Organists... the highest award an American organist can obtain.

A scholarship student at New York College of Music and at Eastman School of Music, Rochester, he supplemented this with study in Europe, and won the degree of Fellow of Trinity College, London. His outstanding work with hundreds of boys was recognized when his life was portrayed on "This Is Your Life."

TAKE YOUR PROBLEMS TO CHURCH THIS WEEK—

millions leave them there!

We Won!

Garry and I won first prize last Saturday! It was the young people's Old Time costume party at the church, and we had a wonderful time.

I go to almost everything the club puts on, and of course there are lots of activities besides parties and dances. We visit hospitals, we collect and repair toys for underprivileged children, and we help with various church events. We have regular religious discussion groups that often get me so interested I continue the discussion around the family dinner table all week long! Mom and Dad don't mind, though. They think it's good for me to be mixing with other young Christians, and they never worry when I'm over at the club.

Your own church offers many enjoyable and worthwhile activities for Christians of every age. Why not join? You'll be warmly welcomed.

JRB BOO BOO . . .
OLD HANKUS blew the duke on his prediction for a Cameron win in last Saturday's Jr. Rose Bowl Game.
Long Beach with all the ingredients of a great junior college team, lowered the boom on the visitors from Oklahoma in rather mercilless fashion.

The Aggies were a disappointment. They hit hard in practice, which is something Columbia Basin and N.E.
Oklahoma did not do the past two years. They appeared to be ready for a big game, even to the point that several teammates tee off
on each other in scrimmage.
Cameron's running was great. Vern Moore and Fred Cheek were able to rip off large gobs of yardage
against a stacked defense.
Long Beach learned early that the Oklahomans had little passing ability. So it was easy to line up seven and eight men on the line.

There was really little excuse for the piling on penalties incurred by the Aggies.
The 140 yards walked off by the officials set a new JRB record. Compton's 120 had held up since 1955. You just don't give a team like Long Beach that kind of help.

After the game Aggie coach Bear Jensen admitted that he didn't figure much on his passers. They had won nine games with a minimal of aerial attack.
Yet Cameron fired passes on two of their first three downs. When you are dragging your heels by a 21-6
count it is necessary to take to the air. Cameron just couldn't do it effectively
and completed one lone pass in 13 attempts, by far the poorest mark in JRB history.

OLD HANKUS voted for Long Beach QB Greg Barton
as player of the game. True

Marvin Motley was great but his fumble had handed the Aggies their lone score.
Barton was the difference in the game. Long Beach had this cool, heady, deft ball-handling passer. Cameron had none.

THE SPONSORING Pasadena Jaycees should be complimented for the excellent turnout of 45,576 fans.
This number was helped considerably by a fine
showing from the "free football for kids" program that put over 12,000 youngsters
in the north end zone.

PETE RUNYON, this year's game chairman, had a fine hard working committee that tried some new gimmicks to help swell the attendance and make the whole show a great one. And wasn't that halftime performance out of this world?
Shucks most of the folks
didn't even miss the danc-

AND SO the 19th annual Jr. Rose Bowl goes down in history. Knowing the Jay-

ready plotting bigger and better activities for the 20th classic in 1965.

Personal Touch

In gift-giving, as in all other things, the "personal touch" is important.

Often, the most appreciated gifts are "home-made"
and their value is measured by the recipient not in terms of dollars and cents but in recognition of the time and effort that went into preparation of the gift.

Few of us, however, have either the time or the talent necessary to "make something" for everyone on our holiday list. And, with the wonderful selection of gifts
available in local stores, it just isn't necessary. But we can still add the personal touch by putting a little extra effort into gift wrapping.

The Wassail Bowl

"Wassail" derives from 2
Old English words, "waes"
and "hale," meaning "Be well." It was the custom in ancient England for the host to hand a new guest a cup of the beverage (a mixture of beer, spices and fruit juices) and say, "Waes hale!" In return, the guest bowed, touched his cup to the host's, and replied
"Drink hale!" or "Drink in health."

Arkansas didn't lose a game
but then they didn't tangle with half the schedule
faced by the Irish.

Las Companeras Annual Christmas Dinner-Dance Saturday, December 12

Members of Las Compan-eras held their annual dinner-dance with their spouses
at the Westerner Gay Nineties Room last Saturday night. Theme for the evening was Christmas Reflections. Mrs. Warren Newton, party chairman, decorated the room with a beautiful white tulle tree covered with tiny blinking lights.
On the tables were little pine trees with colorful birds on them set in little pine knots. Those guests having a little red stamp
under their coffee cups were the winners of these lovely and appropriate centerpieces.

The evening was enjoyed

by President Phyllis Wentz
— she looked stunning in a cocktail length black sequined dress — and her husband, Jim; Ethel and Hank Asher, Barbara and Don
Clark, Gerry and Al Dunn — Gerry was wearing a bright blue chiffon — Helen and Jim Fay; Betty and Guy
Knudson — she had a Christmas-red formal skirt
and cream brocade crop top;
Andrey and Ed McKelvey;
Emily and Bill Morzov;
Mary and Don Munro;
Gloria and Mal Murison;
Joan and Frank Nelson;
Marty and Bud Newton —
Marty in yummy pink crepe
skirt and beaded top; Marilyn and John O'Donnell;
Jeanne and Forrest Paxson
— a floor length light dusky
blue creation was her choice for the evening; Robbie and Al Pruitt; Marge and Dave Roos; Dorothy Castor and escort; Eleanor and Keith Sawyer; Eleanor and Keith Stiles — Ellie wore a black clinging formal dinner
gown; Elizabeth and Ron Toms — Liz was all in silver with holiday green accessories; and Marie and Tom Walsh.

The next meeting of Las Companeras will be held at ty are overburdened by excessive taxation;

Whereas the real property
owner is bearing the cost of 60 per cent of all expendi-

and schools, which amounts to discrimination toward one class of citizen;

Whereas property taxes
are increasing annually at a rate faster than the growth
of personal income;

Whereas the ability of the average citizen to continue to own his home is endangered by unlimited taxa-

Will your call get through on Christmas?

The number of telephone calls to be placed this Christmas is expected to exceed last year's total by 15-20% — a statistic that gains significance when you realize that Christmas generates 3 to 5 times more calls than normal.

While our Traffic Department is gearing up to accommodate the avalanche of calls, we offer these suggestions to help expedite your Holiday calling:

1. Well in advance of Christmas Day, obtain the Area Code and telephone number of people you intend to call.

2. Dial direct every number you can. Place only those calls with the Operator that cannot be dialed direct — Person to Person, Collect and Credit Card calls, for example.

3. If you encounter a Circuit Busy Condition, wait a few minutes (3-5 should do), then dial
your call again.

4. If at all possible, get a jump on the traffic and call a day or two before (or after) Christmas.

Your helping us serve you better will be greatly appreciated. May all your calls be cheerful!

Bethany Lutheran Sunday, Dec. 20

Bethany Lutheran Church, 2666 LaTierra St., E. Pasadena will begin their Christmas festivities on Sunday, December 20, at 11 a.m. The Senior Choir directed by Mr. Al Hellskou, and the Junior Choir directed by Natalie Carlsen will present a "Sermon in Song." The choir will be accompanied by Miss Marilyn Baumbaugh. The congregation will join in with the singing of many familiar Christmas carols. At 7 p.m. the Sunday school will present the annual Sunday School Christmas program. Mr. Bob Kosmas, the superintendent of the Sunday school will direct this program. At 8:15 p.m. the Luther League will leave the church for an evening of caroling.

Home Decorations

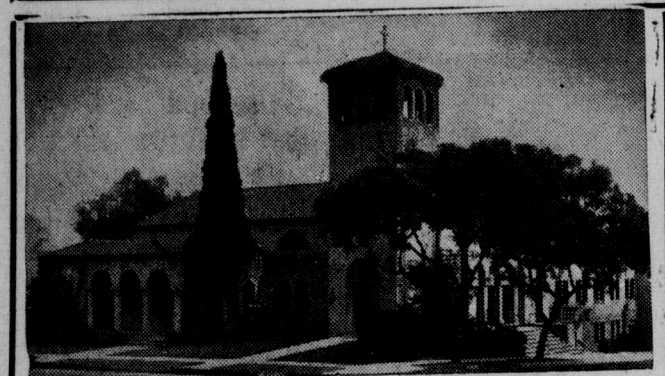

Holiday decorations help emphasize the point that "There's no place like home" at Christmas time. One good source of decorating ideas is a monthly magazine devoted to homemaking and fashions. Department stores are stocked with a variety of decorations and Mother Nature provides such materials as pine cones, green leaves, evergreens, berries, pods and nuts.

Extra Gift

An "extra" and inexpensive gift certain to be appreciated by most youngsters is a supply of batteries. Most children receive one or more battery-powered toys for Christmas.

"Hearts Aglow — With Joy" will be the prevailing theme in the 10:30 Sunday morning pre-Christmas service at Faith Lutheran Church, 845 Hastings Ranch Drive. The Rev. Armin Hesse will so characterize his pulpit message as he speaks on Mary's "Magnificat." Holy Baptism will be administered. The fourth and final candle on the Advent wreath will be lit by Elder Philip Muschinske. The Senior Choir, directed by Edgar Plischke, will present "Of the Father's Love Begotten" as the fall to worship; "I Wonder As I Wander," the Appalachian carol arranged by Miles and Horton; and "Nazareth," by Charles Gounod.

Meeting at 9 on Sunday morning, the Sunday school departments will convene again at 3 in the afternoon for the final rehearsal of the Christmas Eve service. To be presented in the sanctuary at 7 next Thursday night, this service is entitled "How Great A Gift," by Katharine J. Weller.

At 5 on Sunday afternoon, the congregational Christmas potluck supper will be served in the parish hall. All families and friends are invited. A short program will follow the meal, during which a Christmas film will be shown and the Senior Choir will sing Harry Simeone's "Drummer Boy," and F. Melius Christiansen's "Lullaby on Christmas Eve." Next Friday at 9 a.m., the Christmas morning service will be held, with the pastor speaking on "Hearts Aglow — Over God's Gift of Love." Dickens' Christmas Carol To Be Presented Dec. 18

Charles Dickens' famous story, "A Christmas Carol,"
will be presented at the Cultural Arts Center, 3224 Riverside Drive, Friday, December 18, at 8:15 p.m., according to the Los Angeles City Recreation and Parks Department.

The well-known story by Dickens has been drama-tized for children by Julian Lee and follows Scrooge, the meanest man in the world,
through his experiences with Marley's Ghost and the three Spirits of Christmas.

In the end, Scrooge is forced to see the error of his ways
and learn the true meaning of Christmas.

Under the direction of Patricia Martin, a large cast of children, members of the

Beer Drinkers Pay Nice Tax

California beer drinkers in the first nine months of 1964 consumed approximately 7 million barrels of beer and in doing so forked out $71.7 million in the form of "extra" taxes which are imposed on the beverage by the federal and state governments.

FLOURNOY REPORT

by Assemblyman
Houston I. Flournoy
4TH ASSEMBLY DISTRICT

A 2 percent state-imposed limit on the property tax as proposed by Los Angeles County Assessor Philip Watson and the County Board of Supervisors makes a nice headline and sounds great
— until you get down to the fundamental arithmetic and its implications.

As proposed, no property tax bill could exceed 2 per cent of the fair market
value of the property.

Unfortunately, this much publicized solution to the current taxpayers' protest is actually no guarantee
against still higher taxes in the future; would work hardships on many local governments, particularly in the field of education; and would force the state to exert financial control over all agencies of local government.

To understand how this proposal would work, let's first re-examine a property tax bill, with particular attention to the definition of
"market value," "assessed value," and "tax rate."

The "market value" of your property is an estimate of what it is worth on the open market. The "assessed value" is a percentage of this figure, currently set at 25 per cent. The total "tax rate" is the sum of the rates set by each of the taxing agencies — local schools,
water districts, fire, police,
and other community agencies — to meet their budgets. The tax you pay is determined by multiplying the tax rate and the assessed value of the property.

Keeping this in mind, it is easy to see that while the 2 per cent of market value tax limitation sounds protective enough, there is nothing which prevents the market value itself from rising, and indeed there is every expectation that market values will continue to rise.
Furthermore, some areas
may not yet be assessed at
Mr. Watson's standard of 25 per cent of fair market value. If not, we can certainly look forward to more aggressive taxpayer reactions
next year when more assessments are increased; for the recent and heated reaction to the 1964 tax bills was due, not to a change in the tax rate, but primarily to dramatic changes in the assessments.

Turning to the effect of this 2 per cent limitation on local governments, the state
obviously could not set such a maximum unless it also set a maximum property tax rate for every public agency
— the school districts, the cities, the counties, etc. This would have the effect of eliminating local control over local programs, including those in many school districts where voter approval
has established current rates.

All local government would be placed in a state-determined fiscal straight jacket — one with grossly inequitable consequences.
Given the unequal distribution of assessed property
among the school districts,
for instance, a maximum rate would actually curtail existing educational programs in many districts.

The 2 per cent maximum limitation is fundamentally
a device to divert taxpayer attention from the cause of the increases in this year's bills — increased assessments. It does not solve the infinitely more complex problem of providing local

Public Library Annual Book Sale Friday, February 5

The annual book sale
sponsored by the Friends of the Sierra Madre Public Library will be held on Friday, February 5, from 10 a.m. until 9 p.m. An advance preview-sale will be open to members of the Friends of the Library
Thursday evening, February 4, from 6 until 9 p.m. The children's book sale will be held in the library parking lot on Saturday, February 6, from 10 a.m. until noon.

Dorothy Brown, chairman, reminds donors that the sale
is scheduled early this year and now is the time to gather up used books, paper-backs and records and drop them off at the library anytime during regular library hours. If it is not possible to take them to the library,
transportation may be arranged by calling the library, 355-9560, or Dorothy
Brown, 355-0688, or Ardith
Saklem, 356-1088.

All books are welcome.
Many will find their way directly to the library shelves,
and proceeds from the sale of the remainder will be used to purchase new books.

For the Birds

You don't need an elaborate feeder to share Christmas with the birds. You can trim an outdoor tree and decorate it with such things as pine cones dipped in suet, popcorn, bits of apple and grated carrot, even pie crust.
Blue jays, woodpeckers,
nuthatches, chickadees, warblers and brown creepers are
"meat" eaters. Cardinals,

December 17-29

12 Award Winning Arts Exhibited At Home Savings

Twelve award winning paintings from previous Los Angeles All-City Outdoor Art Festivals will be exhibited at Home Savings and Loan Association's Arcadia branch, December 17 through December 29.

According to Arcadia manager and assistant vice president, Earl Wilhite, the paintings represent some of the best works purchased by Home Savings during the 11 years the financial firm has sponsored the annual art show. Viewing hours are 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Mondays through Thursdays, and 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Fridays. Admission is free. The Arcadia branch is located at 60 E. Huntington Drive.

The winning paintings include oils, lithographs, and watercolors. The art show is one of six special exhibits scheduled to tour each of Home's 24 Southern California offices during 1964.

Home is currently celebrating its 75th anniversary. Founded in 1889, today it is America's largest savings association with more than $14 billion in assets.

Santa In Altadena Dec. 19th

Yes, it's all set, he's coming back this year. Who? We mean, Santa, of course. He's scheduled to arrive from the North Pole via his flying vehicle (helicopter, to you) on Saturday, December 19 at 1:30 p.m.

His landing spot will be the parking lot at Altadena Federal Savings and Loan Association's main office, 2246 North Lake Avenue, Altadena. As in other years, his whirlbird craft (it used to be a sleigh) will be loaded with holiday cheer, good will to all and special goodies for the children. However, though it's primarily a children's affair, adults are also invited to meet good ol' Saint Nick.

Since the Association began sponsoring Santa's Altadena trip several years ago, interest in his arrival has mounted, season by season. Crowds have constantly increased, until now hundreds and hundreds of youngsters, and oldsters, too, are on hand when he comes whirling down from the North. This year a further increase in attendance is expected.

Said D. W. Ch'reh, president of the Association, in commenting on the upcoming event, "Other things may change with the passage of time, but Santa Claus goes on forever. This is why his arrival creates the same excitement year after year for not only children but for all of us, young and old. After all, he is one of the true symbols of the Christmas spirit, a time of thoughtful generosity and kindness."

Keep Christmas

Christmas is essentially a religious holiday, so church activities should be an important part of holiday planning. The homemaker who entertains during the holidays can plan ahead and prepare foods which will require little last minute attention. Buffet serving is recommended for large groups as it can be informal and easily done.

Nation's Champion Horses To Race

Santa Anita Opens Season December 26 For 55 Days

The nation's champion horses will be featured in some of America's most notable classic races during Santa Anita's richest winter season 26, and continuing for 55 racing days through Thursday, March 11.

The 28th meeting at the popular Arcadia, Calif., race track, will feature 31 stakes for $1,250,000 as part of a program for an estimated $4,000,000 in total purses.

Public comfort and convenience will once again be noted by patrons as much of the gigantic Santa Anita grandstand has been redecorated in colorful hues to add eye-catching appeal to that of the mid-winter floral display in the vast infield and the formal paddock gardens.

Four $100,000 racing classics will be the racing highlights of the eventful season, with much glamour this year attached to the inauguration of the new $125,000 invitational San Juan Capistrano marathon handicap over the hillside-infield grass course. This race for the first time will find the major racing stars seeking special invitations for this blue-ribbon distance race to be renewed on the closing day of the season, March 11.

The 28th running of the historic $145,000-guaranteed Santa Anita Handicap will be presented on Saturday, February 27, with the $100,000-added Charles H. Strub Stakes for 4-year-olds on Saturday, January 30, and the exciting Santa Anita Derby for 3-year-olds on Saturday, March 6.

The opening-day program on December 26, the day after Christmas, will provide a stakes double-header consisting of the $50,000-added California Breeders' Champion Stakes for 2-year-olds foaled in California, along with the traditional curtain-raiser sprint for older horses, the $20,000-added Palos Verdes Handicap.

There will be nine races daily, with the feature race to be the eighth race on every program. There will be racing five days a week, with no racing Sundays or Mondays, excepting that there will be racing on the holiday Monday, February 22, no racing on Tuesday, February 23, and on Monday, March 8.

Time for the first race on every Saturday of the meeting will be 12:30 p.m. On other racing days during December and January the time will also be 12:30 p.m., but in February and March the post time for all racing days other than Saturdays will be 1 o'clock.

VENT

for the "other side" by "VAN DYKE"

Christmas is here once again — it seems unbelievable how fast time flies. The merchants couldn't even wait for Thanksgiving to put their new decorations and Christmas stock in view of the buying public. . . . most everybody in Sierra Madre was a pleasant exception. With so much emphasis on Santa Claus — even the TB-seals show him now — the real meaning of the day as celebration of Jesus' birthday seems to get pushed farther and farther into the background.

In our machine age, even the "giving" has been made so easy that there is hardly a sacrifice connected with it. They have gadgets now for the wrapping too — some make perfect bows in a few seconds. . . .

Who still makes presents with his own hands and puts love, effort and time into his gifts? Weeks before the Holidays, I used to start building something for the kids. . . . Secretly working in the cellar at night, I created a big dollhouse one year — fireplace, staircase, shingle roof, stucco walls — and five rooms inside, complete with miniature furniture — my father-in-law and brother-in-law helped to make it perfect in all details. . . . Another year, I built a "store" for the children, the next a double-desk for both girls to do their home-work, splitting the roll top and drawers in two. . . . Young couples today, who merely shop for their family and go into debt besides, miss so much of the real spirit of Christmas. . . .

But above all that "Santa Claus" does, to make you an anonymous giver to the children — let us not forget Christ. When we look at the endless reproductions of "Birth in the Manger" scene, let us not forget the glorious message of that night: "Peace on Earth and Goodwill toward Men!" Go to a Communion or candle-light service with the children on Christmas Eve — they should feel and experience the mystery of reverence and religiousness besides the joy of the brilliant Christmas morning with its gifts and surprises. . . .

Think of your Jewish friends on the Festival of Lights — Hanukah, send them cards and show your interest in their days of celebration. Christmas is a Christian Holiday and like the prayer and Bible-reading, it belongs in the homes and the churches. It need not be celebrated or commemorated in public institutions where it may offend those of other faiths, who are attending them with equal rights. . . .

Soon the "Christ m a Spirit" will conquer all — even the Scrooges — at least for a day. Wouldn't it be wonderful if the spirit could become part of us and the flames kindled in our hearts for that day would linger on all year around. . . . Replies to my Fan-mail: I cannot go into all the numbered quotations out of context by R. Daniels, nor give him the definitions which he can readily find in the dictionary, but may I point out that the important word "our" was left out in No. 6 — I said "working for the welfare of mankind as well as the welfare of our people" — Now it is clear that I meant "us Americans"! Also No. 5 shows that I failed to understand that I was talking about being "liberal" within the boundaries of "our Republic." The ultra-rightists still do not see that we have "liberal, moderately liberal, moderate, conservatively liberal, conservative and ultra-conservative" elements in the Republican party. Goldwater only represented the very last group — that's why he lost. . . .

Virginia Nicholoff — Although most of us are EARNING our money, many do not share that privilege because of age, health, unemployment and economic upheavals. Although I agree that the "Give-away" program is often overdone and that we must always watch out for "Chiselers," we cannot and must not stop being a "Good Samaritan" to those in need. . . .

Looks like Stiffback just doesn't like beards. . . . and he doesn't like those who disagree with him. . . . I wonder whether he really likes himself. . . .

Highway Patrol Cars Will Now Carry Shotguns

Shotguns will begin making their appearance in California Highway Patrol cars this month, according to an announcement by Bradford M. Crittenden, Commissioner of the Patrol. "The California Legislature, in authorizing the installation of shotguns in patrol cars, has improved the Highway Patrol's ability to protect not only its own officers but the general motoring public as well against the activities of known felons," Crittenden declared. "The need for this added protection has been growing steadily, particularly as it pertains to attacks on members of the patrol and other peace officers."

"These shotguns will be fired only under circumstances which provide legal and moral justification for taking a human life and then only at a felon," Crittenden declared. "They are not to be used to stop speeders trying to evade arrest, but as a 'back-up weapon' in such circumstances as a roadblock, prison escape, or the apprehension of a known felon."

UI Program

"California's Unemployment Insurance program, which already costs employers more than half-a-billion dollars a year, is steadily being liberalized to the point where it is simply a dole or handout available to anyone who has had some work experience."

That was the charge today of Milford J. Alway, Merchants and Manufacturers Association Employee Relations Consultant, speaking to more than 150 employers attending an M & M Shop Talk at the Statler Hilton Hotel.

Citing a recent decision of the California Unemployment Insurance Appeals Board to give unemployment insurance money to a married claimant who quit a good job because she wanted to stay home to be a housewife, Alway pointed out the UI system has strayed far afield from its original intent.

"The UI program was originally designed," he said, "to provide workers who became unemployed through no fault of their own with limited benefit payments during a reasonable job-seeking period."

Liberalization has contributed to the imposition of a huge financial tax burden of more than $500,000,000 upon California employers, according to Alway, asserting "this entire sum will be paid out in UI benefits this year, leaving nothing from a year of high prosperity to help the unemployed should there be a recession."

"Unemployment insurance benefits should not be given to people who cause their own unemployment — that is, if they quit, or are discharged for misconduct."

Noting the "1965 session of the California State Legislature will be extremely critical for employers," Alway pointed out "while nearly $1½ million daily now is being paid out on Unemployment Insurance claims, increased benefits and expanded coverage already are being discussed."

He said "increased tax programs do not benefit employers of this state, in stiff competition with other areas of the United States, and the world."

"Every cent is a cost of doing business, which must be absorbed through higher prices, or lower quality of product or service."

Indicating a major battle looms during the 1965 legislative session, Alway cautioned "these UI payments have increased 136 per cent since 1959 when they were $211,969,000, or $580,737 daily, contrasted to the daily payments now of $1½ million."

Alway urged "take a good, hard look at legislative proposals during the 1965 session, because unions and some members of the Legislature, too, apparently are interested in one thing alone — a total welfare state, regardless of what the ultimate price will be."

He advised "you should keep informed, and you have to educate many of the people at Sacramento."

Also appearing as panelists at the noon to 4 p.m. program were Robert L. Hirsch, Staff Assistant Tax Division, Sears, Roebuck and Co., and William M. Waldon, Corporate Administrator, Group Insurance Claims, Northrop Corporation.

New legislative proposals concerning Unemployment Insurance were discussed, and effective employer policies and procedures to develop sound approaches in dealing with day-to-day problems of handling claims.

"Priority attention by employers can help to reduce unnecessarily high Unemployment Insurance program costs, eliminate abuses, improve eligibility standards, and maintain Merit Rating," according to the panel.

More than 400 employer representatives have attended the Unemployment Insurance Shop Talks, presented at six locations throughout Los Angeles, Orange and Riverside counties. Today's meeting concluded the series.

Not What It Seems

This country takes great pride in the dramatic increase in income that has occurred over the years. Unfortunately, however, the figures, taken alone, fail to tell the whole story.

A report from the Manufacturers Association of Colorado provides some needed clarification. In 1947, the average production worker's take home pay (after deductions for the federal income tax and social security) was $2,474. Fifteen years later, in 1962, it was $4,446. That looks like a very handsome jump indeed. But!

The 1962 dollar, because of inflation, was worth 35 per cent less than the 1947 dollar. This means that, in terms of purchasing power, the worker's 1962 income was $1,556 less than it seemed. Further, in terms of purchasing power, it was only $416 larger than his 1947 income. His gain was far less than is generally understood.

It is what dollars will buy — not just the total dollars in the pay envelope — that is important. That can't be too often restated. And it is vitally important now, as fears grow that we are in danger of embarking on a new round of inflation. Certainly the government has no greater duty than to take those steps — all possible cuts in government spending being the primary one — that will protect what is left of the dollar's worth.

FREEDOM

At Any Price

By H. V. Witty

"A Treacherous Truce," by Dr. Frederick Brown Harris, Chaplain U.S. Senate:

"In all directions the word now being broadcast is that there is to be a letup in tensions so far as the threat of communism is concerned. The cold war is to be made at least lukewarm. Let us stop irritating the Kremlin den of thieves by constantly talking about captive nations. This altered attitude seems to be based on alleged changes which are going on in the Soviet Union and on the quarrel which has erupted between Red China and Red Russia. Both these assumptions are loaded with dangerous booby traps for the free world. The truth is that whatever changes are evolving in the USSR are going on in a controlled police state and are allowed because they strengthen the regime and further the unalterable objective of world domination. The bitter division in world policy among the members of the communist bloc has to do, not with the desire of one school of thought to be kinder to the West than the other, but because there is a radical difference as to the methods by which the flame of freedom is to be extinguished everywhere. Their idea of coexistence is just an ominous lull in the war they are confident of winning."

"It is because of that war-to-the-death policy of the most blasphemous system humanity has ever known that across the sky of this free land is written the fiery warning that the one burning issue of these days of destiny is not peace as many assume. It is freedom. A passion for a spurious peace when there is no just and righteous peace finally degenerates into the coward's whine, 'Better Red than dead.'"

"The menace of the godless conspiracy of communism is so real and so near that it is a tragedy when pulpits become sounding boards for a so-called peace which is divorced from righteousness. It is tragically true that in America today there are religious leaders advocating the kind of peace which is the objective of Soviet propaganda. They foster a false calm which they call peace, ignoring the dire fact that, as Secretary Rusk puts it, 'With the Soviet Union peace becomes a word to describe whatever condition will promote their world revolution.'"

It was recently reported that the man who personally took $10,000 to Castro when the latter was in Mexico in 1956, the same man who in 1959 dedicated himself to taking throughout Latin America the message of the revolution, is now on the payroll of the National Council of Churches and a speaker at the conference grounds of a recent convention held by a mission organization. His topic was "Revolution — With or Without Revelation."

"The Recall is the thing feared by the Brown dynasty. A Recall will take away their machine power and place them before the court of public opinion where their conduct can be critically examined and evaluated by the citizenry. As distinguished from an impeachment proceeding which is hand-led entirely by political office-holders, giving the political machines full power, the Recall places the individual politician before the public without partisan support, and permits the individual voter to use his judgment as to whether the politician should be permitted to continue in office.

"Because of this Governor Brown and his cohorts fear the Recall."

"The Recall is the only protection we, the people, have against men like Governor Brown."

"The use of the Recall can not only rid us of a communist-appealing administration but will create a healthy, clean political climate of control over present and future politicians who need down to earth direction from the taxpayers and voters."

"Governor Brown does not represent the overwhelming majority of taxpayers and voters. He represents and abides by the demands of the minority left wing groups."

"He has reached an all-time low in popularity. His opposition to Proposition 13 was a flagrant violation of the Constitution of the State of California as was his appointment of now defeated Pierre Salinger, a non-resident of our State. The votes cast for Proposition 13 were against Brown. The defeat of Salinger was a crushing blow to the Governor. Thousands of Democrats are chagrined and much disturbed with Brown's political floundering and dishonesty. There is much turmoil and dissension within the dog-eat-dog Democratic Party. The grass root Democrats want to clean house now. California Republicans, likewise, are concerned and want action."

Santa Anita Revises Post Times

A revision in post time schedule for Santa Anita's 55-day 1964-65 winter racing season was announced today by Fred H. Ryan, vice president and general manager of the Arcadia race track. The winter meeting opens Saturday, December 26.

Ryan said that Santa Anita will present nine races daily, with the first race to be set for 12:30 p.m. for all 11 Saturday programs and for all weekdays in the months of December and January. In February and March, however, Ryan noted, the first race will get off at 1 o'clock for all programs other than Saturdays.

The featured race will always be the eighth race of the day throughout the meeting, including the televised major stakes every Saturday. The first two races each day will comprise the daily double.

Santa Anita will race Tuesday through Saturday, with no Monday racing except for the Washington's Birthday holiday, February 22, and on Monday, March 8, in the abbreviated closing week of the meeting.

Joining in the festivities for an evening buffet will be Mrs. Eleanor Jenkins and her three children, Peggy, Bobby and Ed, who will be vacationing from Santa Clara College.

Tree Care

Many efforts have been made to chemically fireproof the Christmas tree. Such substances as aspirin, sugar and fruit acids in water have been tried — yet nothing has proved as effective as plain water, which keeps the tree naturally moist and thus resistant to flame.

Letters To the Editor . . .

I may not believe in what the man says, but I will defend to my death his right to say it. — (similar words of Voltaire) to my death his right to say it. — (similar words of Voltaire)

Dear Editor:

For several years I have searched in vain for certain gifts for Christmas. I have not, as yet, been able to locate them. I thought perhaps, through your long experience as a newspaperman, you might be able to help me locate these particular gifts.

The list is quite long but not unreasonable — at least I do not think so.

I am looking for the following:

1. A package of impeachment for Earl Warren.
2. A large bottle of insecticide for Otto Otepka, (for use at his discretion).
3. A large broom for Frances Knight, (for use after aforementioned insecticide takes effect).
4. A resignation from the "up-ended ant box" for Adlai Stevenson.
5. Demolition crew for moving above box to Moscow.
6. A package of ratifications, (if possible 43 in number), on the Liberty Amendment for the Congress.
7. Several buckets of black-wash (to replace currently used white-wash), for President Johnson's aides and advisors.
8. A box of Regression, (from Progressive Education), for Max Rafferty.
9. A carton of Mass Exodus from the Social Gospel for the National Council of Churches.
10. A package of prayers to distribute to the schools.
11. Several spray cans of Dissolution for assorted bureaus such as: Urban Renewal, Area Redevelopment, Peace Corps, Youth Corps, Federal Employment Office, etc. etc., ad nauseum.
12. Assorted packages of back bone and common sense for foreign policy advisors.
13. Assorted packages of morality and honesty for Bobby, Walter, Billie Sol, several congressmen and senators.
14. Reverse brainwashing kits for the communications media, Ban the Bombers, Saners, Corers, Fair Players, Copers etc.
15. Headshrinking kits for fuzzy egghead economic advisors.
16. A few tons of truth for the "masses."
17. A like number of tons of indignation to foster:
18. A like number of tons of patriotism to lead to:
19. A like number of tons of action to erase:
20. Ditto tons of apathy.

Anything you can do to help will be most sincerely appreciated.

Santa's Village

Santa Claus, Indiana and Christmas, Florida pop into the news each Christmas season, and throughout the year are visited by thousands of tourists. Away out west, in the San Bernardino mountains not too far from Los Angeles, California, the star of popularity is fast rising for Santa's Village, a replica of the North Pole home of Santa Claus, complete with plenty of snow during the winter months . . . and including, of course, Santa himself, his elves, animals, toys, candy, and a 20-passenger sleigh.

Frank H. Bowers Local Artist Succumbs Dec. 11

Frank H. Bowers, age 59, of 163 1/2 N. Grove Street, Sierra Madre, passed away Friday, December 11 at El Cerrito Hospital, Long Beach, following a lengthy illness.

Mr. Bowers was an artist, self-employed, and was originally from Berkeley, California, and had lived in Sierra Madre for seven years.

He is survived by his wife, Vicki Bowers of Sierra Madre; two sons, Frank Jr. of New York, Thomas R. of Belmont Shore, and a daughter, Sidney Stessens of Manhattan Beach, and two grandchildren.

Services were held Tuesday, December 15, at 11 a.m. in the Ripple Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. Ray Hansen, Inurnment, Sunnyside Cemetery, Long Beach.

Arrangements were made by Ripple Mortuary, Sierra Madre.

Samuel L. Graham Succumbs Enroute To Visit Sister

Samuel L. Graham, age 68, who came to Sierra Madre some 55 years ago, and made his home with his aunt, Thomasella Graham on North Lima, died suddenly of a heart attack while enroute with his sister, Mrs. Jessica Schneider, of her home at Lake Providence, Louisiana.

Mr. Graham, well known in the area, had served Sierra Madre as city engineer many years ago. He was also Past Commander of the Sierra Madre American Legion Post and Past Master of the Masonic Lodge.

He served in World War I, in the Navy as a radio operator, and in World War II as an engineer, and was stationed in Hawaii.

Mrs. Schneider had come to Sierra Madre to visit and Mr. Graham was driving back with her to her home in Louisiana. The fatal attack took his life on Saturday, December 12.

Besides his sister, Mr. Graham is survived by two nephews also of Lake Providence.

Services were held Monday, December 14 in Lake Providence.

Substitute

Some researchers conclude that the custom of sending Christmas greetings developed from the old-time tradition of visiting friends on New Year's Eve. When a well-wisher discovered that the person he wanted to visit was not at home — most likely off visiting someone else — he would leave a note and a card as a reminder of the visit.

Dear Editor:

The following is a copy of a letter sent by Taxation to the Pasadena Board of Directors.

Mr. Floyd Gwinn, Chairman Board of Directors Pasadena, California

Dear Mr. Gwinn:

Because of the concern which numerous taxpayers are showing over the speed with which Pasadena appears to be rushing into a federally sponsored "anti-poverty" program bearing the possibilities of heavy local tax burdens, I have laid the matter before the Pasadena Action Committee of Taxation, Inc.

From a preliminary review of the circumstances surrounding this program, it appears to the committee that the Commission on Human Needs is, in effect, a self-appointed group which has gained some kind of authority by actions of the Pasadena Board of Directors and the Pasadena Unified School District Board of Education. My committee is uncertain of the extent of this authority. It appears probable, however, that new tax burdens, which may prove to be of large proportions, may be fastened upon the city and adjacent areas within the Pasadena School District as a result of the actions of this group.

Accordingly, I have been directed by the Pasadena Action Committee of Taxation to ask that the Pasadena Board of Directors demand that the Commission on Human Needs take no further action on the proposed "anti-poverty" program until the public in these areas has had ample opportunity to become much better informed than it can now be on the tax implications of this program. My committee feels that all taxpayers must be concerned over the possibility of undefined spending authority being given to a self-appointed group which is not responsible to the voters.

Besse R. Licher
Chairman Pasadena Action Committee TAXATION, INC.

Ask the council how mortgage lenders in this area feel about condominiums. Ask yourself how compatible apartment dwellers and home owners are, if thrown together in the same cluttering little subdivision. For every successful PD in Southern California you'll find a hundred sick ones, both financially and esthetically.

The out-of-town visitor? I felt sorry for him. His sponsors pushed him to his feet so often in their efforts to cram him down our necks he looked more like a yo yo than a member of an abused ethnic group.

Tell you what, Nance. Buy him the house next to yours, make him a producing, NORMAL and NATURAL resident of our community, and I'll not compile a list of your "liberal" (to be polite) endeavors and affiliations to taunt you with in the future. (Sorry, babe, but you'll soon discover my ill manners are exceeded only by my nasty, conservative disposition.)

Well, ED, that's what I got out of the meeting. Guess it was better, at that, than watching Huntley and Pinkley on the boob tube.

Dear Editor:

The following is an open letter to Uncle Santa Sam. Dear Uncle Santa Sam:

In this election year of extravagant political promises, please let a little light penetrate our transportation chaos. Efficiency of various modes is too often disregarded in frantic pork barrel spending for non-rail transport. Self-reliant railroads offer no opportunity for political squandering. They operate below capacity because their inherent economy is taxed and regulated away for the benefit of subsidized air, water and highway transport.

Let no scars remain from the railroad family squabble over work rules revision. Let no one turn green with envy over modest profits. They offer the only sound basis for job security, which without profitable traffic, cannot be legislated or negotiated. Let it be realized that what benefits the railroad president benefits Casey Jones and vice versa.

Finally, please Uncle, help us to keep our fine passenger trains busy, that we need not fly abroad before we may travel leisurely — by rail.

—K. Fritz Schumacher

Dear Editor:

This is quite a town. Where else could you attend a city council meeting and witness, on the one hand, $3,500 of taxpayer's money being flushed down the tubes because of a whimsical folly known as "cluster housing," and on the other, view the obvious parading of imported talent before the townspeople out of pure, venomous spite? And all in the same evening.

It beats all. The council talks of less water run-off, lower density and community betterment in the Willis Tract, then throws good money after bad for a "planned development" which results in no alleviation of flood dangers, and in fact sanctions greater density of

EDITOR'S NOTE: We had better get together soon, Stifbak, seems our signals are getting crossed. I am sure there is no connection in paragraph 4 and 5, I was there too you know. The gentleman you are discussing in paragraph 5, is not an out of town visitor and he was not on his feet for speaking. Clean your typewriter ribbon a little, it's getting smutty and putting you out of character.

Dear Editor:

"The only thing that brought him (Ronald Reagan) into the political bright light was his fanatical fight against Communism — even before the Birch Society was born — and then his campaign work and speeches for Goldwater. One would think that this is enough to DISQUALIFY him on two counts . . . The logical man to beat the Democratic incumbent in my estimation would be Senator Kuchel."

So stated Spent for the "wrong side" on last December 10th. I would assume by his above quoted remarks that "Professor" Van Dyke's logical choice is the man he believes would best serve the interests of the people.

I would like to query Sierra Madre's version of Winnie the Pooh as to just what is so repulsive about fighting Communism and why Senator Kuchel is so acceptable to him? Could it be that this "Bear of little brain" fits hand in glove into Kuchel's pocket because both are dedicated to the same cause — namely the total destruction of United States sovereignty? Could it be that Van bird brain has bought the "pig in the poke" and believes Kuchel when he states that all patriotic organizations and anti-communists are "fright peddlers" and must be neutralized in order to bring about world peace and harmony?

If the bearded one so believes, then his objective, along with Kuchel's, is identical to that of the Russian Communists who in 1960 issued the "Moscow Manifesto" which listed anti-Communism in the United States as its number one target.

V. D. seems to have a definite aversion for Ronald Reagan because Ronie just doesn't love the Communists, having indicated as much by supporting Senator Goldwater who himself has shown no infatuation for Moscow. V. D. is most impressed with Thomas Kuchel who by his own actions has indicated his desire to hideously ugly togetherness-huts.

Ask the council how mortgage lenders in this area feel about condominiums. Ask yourself how compatible apartment dwellers and home owners are, if thrown together in the same cluttering little subdivision. For every successful PD in Southern California you'll find a hundred sick ones, both financially and esthetically.

The out-of-town visitor? I felt sorry for him. His sponsors pushed him to his feet so often in their efforts to cram him down our necks he looked more like a yo yo than a member of an abused ethnic group.

Tell you what, Nance. Buy him the house next to yours, make him a producing, NORMAL and NATURAL resident of our community, and I'll not compile a list of your "liberal" (to be polite) endeavors and affiliations to taunt you with in the future. (Sorry, babe, but you'll soon discover my ill manners are exceeded only by my nasty, conservative disposition.)

Well, ED, that's what I got out of the meeting. Guess it was better, at that, than watching Huntley and Pinkley on the boob tube.

—STIFBAK

Dear Editor:

I'm a failure! I'm utterly devastated! Here I thought I was keeping everyone safely asleep then this Mr. Feyer (from Alaska yet) woke up. Oh well, we all have our set backs and he's only one, after all.

Everybody relax! Go back to sleep! Don't pay any attention to these crackpots! Shh! Bye, bye.

State Senate Reapportionment Battle Won

Supervisor Frank G. Bonelli today announced that his six-year battle to reapportion the California State Senate has been won as a result of Thursday's Federal District Court's clear-cut decision and mandate to the State Legislature.

Bonelli declared: "At long last, the restoration of equal voter rights within the state's highly populated urban-suburban areas is now a reality. Correcting the malapportionment too long existent in California will provide for fair and equitable representation in dealing with the herculean problems confronting Los Angeles County and other counties of Southern California and, in addition, will provide proper representation more commensurate with the cost of state government borne by Los Angeles County and other urban-suburban areas of the state."

Governor Brown and the state legislature, as directed by Federal Court, must decree Senate reapportionment by not later than July 1, 1965, and make it the number one objective in the upcoming session starting in Sacramento on January 4. Failure of the state legislature to act promptly would be defiance of the law, as clearly spelled out in the Federal Court edict, leaving no alternative but for the U.S. Court to reassume control on Senate reapportionment under retention of authority and jurisdiction reserved unto Federal Court as part of the Court order directed to the legislature.

"Thus, it has been shown that that worth having, is worth fighting for; and that which is fair and equitable, will ultimately prevail. The long, hard six-year battle has been won and all the effort has been justified by achievement of the goal — 'A Reapportioned State Senate for California.'"

The spirit of Christmas has arrived at our house with full impact and I am beginning to fully appreciate the small traditions that my children have enforced upon our family without even realizing it. The hue and cry that we always do it this way seems a lot more important than modernizing our methods of Christmas.

We always put our nativity scene up in exactly the same manner but we always arrange it several times before we decide that it was exactly right in years gone by.

We have traditional days of baking together, one cracks the nuts, one chops fruit, one wraps, and the last one licks the pan. We decorate together, sing together, plan together, wrap together, and we worship together.

How fleeting are the years when a family is a solid unit. Too soon the children are no longer children but gone like Santa and his reindeer, and these traditional times become rare jewels to cherish and guard in hidden corners of your memory while your children start their own treasure chest of traditions just as we did before them, each in our own way retaining the true meaning of the celebration as the birthday of the Christ child.

The hills are aglitter with lights and decorations and amid all the gaiety, the parties are beginning in full swing.

Last week the Skipper Rosters had a "Where were you in 1941?" party for some of their friends. Among the "costumes" were a couple of University of Chicago sweaters, a navy uniform, a stewardess uniform, and Skipper came in a surgical gown. He was being operated on just 23 years ago. I think the one that shakes you up the most is Charles Goldsworthy. After 23 years his uniform still fits!!!

Those invited were Marilyn and Bob Brydolf, Melba and Harold Berg, Margaret and Cal Mathieu, Louise and Phil Saurenman, Vera and Cleo Dorsey, Ann and John Duncan, Venita and Bill Casler, Chrys and Charles Goldsworthy, Amy and Joe Philipson, Phyl and Charlie Hardison, and Uncle Fred Bosbyshell.

Postmaster Asks Full Cooperation

"It's too late to mail early, so please mail now," Postmaster Charles E. Louk said today.

"The biggest mail explosion in history is upon us and we need the cooperation of everyone to make sure that the holiday mail is all delivered before Christmas," the Sierra Madre Postmaster said.

The Sierra Madre Post Office will be open from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. this Saturday, December 19, so that patrons may purchase stamps and mail cards and packages.

Mr. Louk suggested the use of air mail and special delivery to guarantee pre-Christmas delivery, especially for out-of-town mail.

In all instances, the use of ZIP Codes will be helpful. The codes generally mean that mail moves in a direct route and is handled fewer times. Parcels with ZIPED addresses may be delivered 24 hours or more before others going to the same destination which do not include the five digit code.

Postmaster Louk announced that all postal operations will be on a holiday schedule Christmas Day. Only special delivery mail will be delivered on December 25.

Mr. Louk thanked all the citizens of Sierra Madre who cooperated in the "Shop and Mail Early" campaign. "It now appears that we have passed the peak for outgoing mail on December 16. However, there still is a small mountain of holiday mail which must be delivered," he said.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Arnold are looking forward to spending a happy Christmas Day with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hatfield, at their home on Manzanita. Having a wonderful time with their grandparents and their uncle, Perry Arnold will be Bobby, Jennie and Susan Hatfield.

Contributions Still Asked For

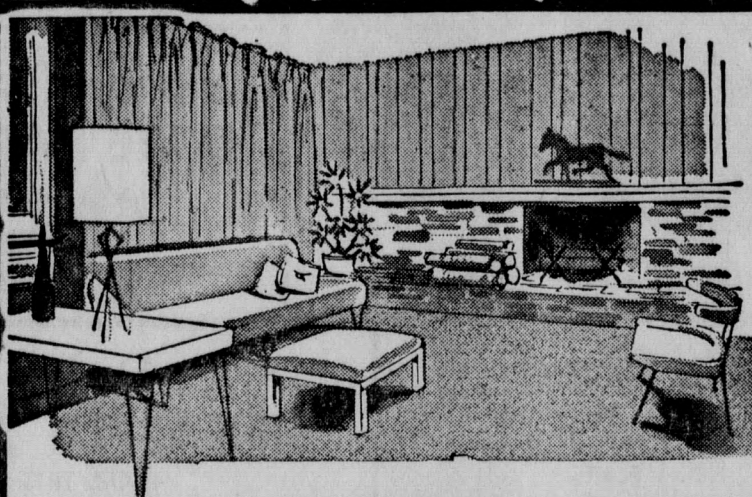

Almost 3,000 residents have already sent in contributions to Casa Colina's Christmas appeal. In the first few days of the campaign over $15,000 has been received. All contributions provide care and treatment for needy patients.

The Center offers extensive rehabilitation for patients of all ages. Little children with birth defects, teenagers paralyzed from the neck down as a result of driving or automobile accidents and adults with strokes, are just some of the types of the physically handicapped that are being helped at Casa Colina.

The very successful nursery school for cerebral palsy children who are not yet five years old is part of the Center's program. Physical and occupational therapy are included in the day's routine for these patients.

No patient, including outpatients, is ever turned away for lack of funds. Since Casa Colina is not tax-supported nor a member of any fund-raising group, the annual mail appeal makes this charity program possible. Anyone wishing to help crippled children and adults is urged to send his contribution to Casa Colina, Pomona.
